That Legislature at Frankfort

is capable of performing some wonderful things and providing us with some wonderful laws has been made so far already in a number of ways, and will the citizens grow on one of the latest and most planned by this body in its attack on the method of providing public schools with text books.

This measure is commonly known as the "Book Bill." It has already passed the House and is now pending in the Senate. It is to be hoped that the goal of our schools, the Senate will approve it. The bill is a mass of amendments, alterations and revisions of the principles of government by the people. And strange to say this measure is endorsed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, who in his report to the Senate has not been over particular in his statement of facts. The present law regarding school books in Kentucky has been working very satisfactorily for a number of years and under it we have secured uniformity by the Legislature. The books are in use in all the schools of the State. The present law is not acceptable for the work of our schools have been proven by experience, and the same are being used in the schools of the State.

Now the attempt is being made to unseat the whole question and open the way for a change of books.

Gentlemen of the Legislature, we have the bill in our hands. It is a bill to amend the act of 1892 relating to the purchase of school books. It is a bill to amend the

It is a little late but will not too late to remark that the Legislature has passed a law on the State of Kentucky.

The Mason & Board Company have announced that they will not meet their creditors later today, which expires next day.

The Supreme Court of Indiana has decided the appointment of 1891 and the general law. The general law will have to do the work over again.

The primary election plan of select potentates is very popular with those who want to take the paragon out of the hands of Congressmen.

The one side vote Harrison thought he had in Kansas has slipped through his fingers. The certificate of election has been given to the Populist on the ground of a clerical error.

Gov. Brown has refused the bill to renew the extra session of the legislature. The extra session of the legislature will not meet until the first of January.

Although the fusion in some of the States has been successful, the Democratic vote in the Western States, Cleveland's popular vote has been 5,000,000 and his popularity over Harrison more than 500,000.

North Dakota elected two fusionist electors and one Republican. Now the fusionist electors will vote for Cleveland. This will divide the three votes of the State between the fusionist and the Republican. This will divide
